

Show off

It's a show of knowledge, so some people may not want to see it

What does "Aragaketai" mean? Is it some kind of military unit...?

I heard that chant over the loudspeakers at Sapporo Station yesterday...is it popular on TV now...?

I'm familiar with "slingshots" because they mean cranes.

(A crane is a type of vehicle used to demolish buildings by hurling iron balls at them, or to lift rebar and load it onto a truck. The famous "Asama-Sanso Incident" involved the use of an iron ball)

The Self-Defense Forces only have large vehicles, so I don't know if I was able to get a special operations license.

☆Just a small part of showing off★

*Kakuei Tanaka → Theory of Remodeling the Japanese Archipelago → Public Works → Niigata → High School Dropout Prime Minister → Lockheed Scandal → Diet Questioning by Mr. Osano → No Memory → Tokyo District Public Prosecutors Office Special Investigation Unit

*Bulgaria → Sofia → Yogurt → Windmill

*Iran → Ayatollah Khomeini → Palestinian People's Liberation Army → Iraqi President Saddam Hussein → US Marines → Discovery → Trial

*US-Japan Security Treaty, US-Japan Status of Forces Agreement → Yukio Mishima → University of Tokyo → Seppuku suicide → Shusaku Endo → Coffee commercial

*Finland → Sauna → Fjord → Tohoku Sanriku Rias Coast → Izumo Taisha Shrine → Shimane → What era is this previous work from?

*Baltic states → Roman Empire → Sparta → Aegean Sea → Athens → Greece → Economic collapse → Greeks → Chiseled face → That male statue

*Mongolia → Ulaanbaatar → Tent → Looks like a Japanese person → High altitude → Snow tan → Mount Everest

*Paagonia → Image of the southernmost point on Earth

✂ Airline ground crew guidelines for boarding planes with sumo wrestlers on tour
(as shown on the cover)