

The rabbit bicycle appears

Spring is almost here in Sapporo... I can see the asphalt.
This year, the rabbit bicycles are back again.

When summer comes,

"shorts on the bottom"

"tank top over my usual T-shirt"

Last year, I overheard women in their 20s saying things like,

"Your underwear is showing" so be careful...

By the way, the "rabbit ears" were not sold as an accessory on Amazon, but were added later. However, since I purchased them on Amazon and assembled them myself, I was able to purchase them for a fraction of the price of a new, assembled item.
