

Physiological Phenomena Open Company

Everything is open

- ① Sneezing, yawning, stretching, farting
- ② Working with stubble and no makeup
- ③ Getting a warning from your boss for disrupting order while wearing makeup
- ④ However, it's impossible to generalize about beards as they vary from person to person (thick, thin, or none at all)
- ⑤ In the entertainment industry, makeup is expected regardless of gender due to the nature of the work.

Incidentally, the teachers at Shiseido Beauty College didn't wear makeup either, so I think most men in general companies don't.

Veteran employees can even tell by ear,

"That fart was a real one, wasn't it?"

Of course.
